

“Return to Innocence & the Divine Mechanism” (Part 1)

These posts are based notsomuch on opinion but rather aspects of Keylontic Science, a degree of input from medical science. Please bear in mind that every unit of natural, organic life, is surrounded by it's own, unique, Kathara Grid. The KG performs multiple functions but, amongst other things, is a transmitter and receiver of scalar-electromagnetic frequencies aka consciousness.

A fundamental dilemma exists in "spiritual" circles which arise from how we perceive objective reality and interact with it ... or not. What I mean by this is that while it is an increasingly accepted fact that our planetary environment is governed by a majority of energy feeders, TPTB/ Illuminati feeders & paedo's, "sleeping humans" and all variants 'in-between' we seem to suffer 'parallax error' (or blind adherence to other ways of 'seeing') as it bears down on our understanding as well as the prospects for an actual, purposeful, evolutionary path.

The earthly imbalance between the "do no harm" attitude and the "feeders" psychopathic disposition has rarely been more extreme, and to a very critical degree. However, Asha and I would say that the "in-betweeners" just bob about in an ocean of grief, always prevaricating, never really getting down to making real impact. Energetically, all circumstances are largely our own responsibility (certainly true for covenanted angelic humans). The concomitant inclination to "forgive" every human infraction in sight actually makes matters worse, not better. Notwithstanding the very real possibility that such 'forgiveness' is a true reflection of our sub-conscious (possibly conscious) guilt. This, together with other unaccountable, unrecognized, 'influences' from within as much as from without (due to shield corruption/ weakness) makes for periodic maelstrom's.

This state is exacerbated by the dim recollection of the pre-ancient myths, legends, religious rites, magical and drug induced ecstatic practices that exonerate us from facing reality, getting our hands dirty, so to speak (via ascension prep'). The greater meaning of this remark lies notsomuch as "what we do about the feeders" but how do we extricate ourselves from these unholy circumstance, the maze, the Matrix; the self-same Labyrinth's of many ancient hero's of Legend such is the longevity of this challenge.

The means to achieve this solution are well understood in certain esoteric circles, and this is what the Witness Quiz partially introduced, principally the question of insisting on life by highest choice. I mentioned then that the main point occurred in the buildup, and that 80%+ of KSers (about 100 spiritually committed folk) in the room acknowledged that they, knowingly, made inferior choices, regularly, under circumstances that readily offered a higher choice. Among spiritually inclined people this may speak to laziness, ignorance, careless-ness, distraction and what have you, all variants of inattentiveness and self-deception. In the case of feeders well, they couldn't care less, whether it contaminates/ pollutes the experience of self, others or not. People aren't people; they are 'things'. Nuff said.

The 'meme' that "we are all one" carries little weight here sub-atomically or otherwise. Its an overused expression which does little more than make the speaker of the meme feel better, otherwise it accounts for next- to-nothing. Its a truly energetic vacuum and gift from the CIA/ PTB Mind Control Unit. I see, regularly, that such a meme traps "spiritual" people because it limits their scope of objective observation and interaction. Peace and harmony are not inevitable on earth, that much is historically evident; it's a circumstance so plain to see for hundreds of thousands, even millions, according to the Amenti & Voyagers info'. So, another adage "think it so, and it will be so" is also plain nonsense for directly associated reasons isn't it?! World leaders need to do this, recognize that, listen to the many people sending love and light, this is the Path of 'truth'. Hmmm, well, how long does it take for angelics to notice 'it aint doin' nuttin' for evolution is it!?

"All is one" IS the TRUTH but only understood from a much higher perspective than 3, 4 or even 5D. Are we correct in our earthly perception? After all, all we have to do is to shine our light and darkness goes away ... doesn't it?!

Who says "darkness" is not necessary to the workings, potential and evolution of our Universe? I would suggest that to deny such as truth is an appalling act of arrogance (and ignorance). It is, in fact, a denial of Source itself and implicitly the states of Divine Being (light) and Non-being (dark). Darkness aka evil is real, on its own level. One 'needs' the other to produce the creative dynamic essential to all Creation. The challenge for angelics is to identify and navigate what exists of this conundrum here on Earth.

So, there's the rub; this is our predicament. We have to make a choice between paths, obtain and utilize as much knowledge as possible, before making an irreversible commitment to the Path of Being and, maybe, try Impeccability for size! As Ash would say, once we engage "there's no going back!" I, instead, came to realize that 'in-betweeners' are the greatest fantasists of all, exist in greatest danger & compromise others who are not.

This choice is the king of all choices; it's the very ROOT of FREE WILL. Therefore, it yields the existential requirement of finding effective terms on which we relate and self manage our OWN reality. This must be so since, if effectively spiritual, we choose to actively discern good and evil as directors of our conscious energy. This is what a 'self-sovereign' being is acting out existence is confined in our work by the compressed density of Earths' energetic atmosphere (and it is not nice)!

Source is Creation, our Universe is full of life giving, life ending, forgiveness and vengeance, joy and tribulation, ugliness and beauty, ad infinitum; polarity unified in Source. To attempt to replicate, anticipate or emulate Source viewpoint, to engage meaningfully with the entire range of characteristics and consequences is the height of self delusional, psychopathic, presumption (c.f. Anyu- Annu-Elohim).

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, our illusions and projections concerning other peeps, regular peeps, people like me, not people like me, almost without pause the endless torrent of chaotic energy has the audacity to impose, assumes others think and feel as 'we' do. And, if they don't they are just misguided idiots, lacking in real something or the other, love, perhaps. But, the reality of ALL this is actually deeply shocking, and here's why.

I said at the beginning that all sentient life is surrounded by a Kathara Grid, that's just to remind. The Kathara Grid (authentic tree-of-life) has 12 nodes as you may know. What many will not necessarily realize is that each node is sensitive to Source consciousness, as energy, flowing from Scalar Magnetic Standing Waves. Its not a one way street either! The nodes are what attract our own specific genetic combination of DNA as matter particles form around them. Nodes are sensitive to other life forms, information, and threats as well as other senses. The whole array attracts, receives and returns frequencies from Source and the sea of consciousness Source maintains (I will write on the Matrix like effects in the sequel). Furthermore, the nodes & DNA function in relation to our Hova & Radial body's, Merkaba spins (stability, speed, rotational direction), ARPS and other aspects that must be PERFECT to merge with higher Density Merkaba (planetary type) if we are to manage ascension (or an evac' equivalent). Like, that's ALL !!!???

So, yes, what I am telling you is that all of the aforementioned circumstances form part of this picture and directly impact our four body system in an endless dance of recurring feedback loops. Any and all, good and bad, frequencies trigger the biological (hormonal, esp. Celsestaline) mechanisms IMMEDIATELY: neurons, common cells, neurotransmitters and related components of molecular bonding (receptors, electrons, protons, ligands). Cell receptors float on the cells surface like LOTUS PETALS floating in a vast pond as its roots spread across the cells interior. These actions result in VERY PARTICULAR shapes, as very particular molecules are formed; more and more atoms are attracted to this sea of change, producing truly specific SACRED GEOMETRIES. All this is initiated by INFORMATION "entering" a "cell" of one of our mental-body's just as a "ligand" acts on the "cell" when it binds to a receptor. In turn, our higher mind, our spiritual/ soul receptor, transmits information deep into the interior of our consciousness, where the message can change the state of awareness dramatically, and any subsequent input or output is processed, saved or stored. Chain reaction(s) of a psycho- spiritual kind occur, consciousness realigns itself, based on the information received, readying to receive new waves of subsequent data.

This is the currency of evolution, the spiritual life chain in natural motion. If these processes are interrupted or interfered with to any degree unnaturally, with repetitive consistency, the result can be measured in terms of progressive cellular/ molecular polarity reversal aka DIS-EASE (Metatronic compaction). Progressive REVERSAL of POLARITY of these delicate biological mechanisms combines to compound stress throughout our 4 body system, which registers and FLOWS through all, compromising according to the conditions produced. Outcomes can be any and all of: Molecular compaction (compromising our shields), miasms (Sho-Na frozen light) or unhelpful hormonal changes in the Hypothalamus, pineal and pituitary glands, effects on numerous other functions such as Hova bodies, Radial bodies, access to bodily keys and codes, et al.

So, now you might see that this existential reality presupposes firm and clear discernment between “good” and “evil” occurring within our Morphogenetic Fields, controlling the condition and processes of the four Minds which are key to the development & increased control over our 4 Body System. As recently informed wannabe directors of our own conscious energy flows we attenuate more keenly to what exactly we are doing with our energy in biological, behavioral, genetic and homeostatic terms.

Meanwhile, Source continues, never minding what we choose to do. We are gifted “Free Will” though our current 3D environment. Source cares less about that rarely felt and ancient privilege, but anticipates what we manage to return. Source continues on, BEing Consciousness, Source as Matter, as Life Giving, as Life Ending, as Forgiveness and Vengeance, as Joy and Tribulation, as Ugliness and Beauty and as Good and Evil. Profound and all powerful, and yet angelics are not THAT quite yet.

We suffer our illusions and projections our hopes and expectations. We see regular peeps, other peeps, not peeps “like me”, always assuming others think and feel as ‘we’ do. If they don’t they are labeled as somehow deficient, misguided, lacking in “real” love in their lives. But the truth, reality, is very very different. The population mix is ENTIRELY different, and dangerously so. The greater portion lack connection to higher sensory centres of universal love and awareness of other (Service to other). Lacking genetic similarity w/ angelic’s, wired differently, yet capable of faking higher behavioral characteristics that can interfere with one’s own evolution, sapping energy by feeding off it. This particular variety of “human” can tell exactly what you want to hear, come across as compassionate, empathetic, understanding without feeling a darned thing!

Since this phenomenon includes the majority of Earth’s population it raises the likelihood that the AWAKENING SOUL will be caught, exposed, tricked to suffer adverse influences of all kinds, often very painful ones too. Family members, co-workers, neighbors, bosses/ supervisors, close friends, lovers, husbands, wives. Any, all and more are capable of producing stress factors and conditions that will contribute to polarity reversal, though if they were aware of the stakes, they might act otherwise (don’t hold your breath!). Of course, these circumstances offer the first test: PERSISTENCE, setting the stage for your own version of “IMPECCABILITY”.

The world around you shows you exactly what to avoid, how to feel, BEing in this world, but NOT of IT. Now you have renewed resolve, have a better idea of what the damaging processes entail, and what the cost in terms of spiritual evolution & potential are likely to be. Remember too, all psi abilities are embedded within, protected by spirit in the care of soul. Science calls this “junk” DNA (Introns) 😊

Respect, treasure and protect your Inner Elf for, as George Gurdjieff mystic, philosopher, and teacher of “the Fourth Way” once said, there are zombie monkeys aplenty, constantly hungry for someone’s energy.

“A considerable percentage of people we meet are people who are empty on the inside, that is, they are already dead. It is fortunate for us that we do not see and do not know it. If we knew what number of people is actually dead and what number of these dead people govern our lives, we should go mad with horror.”
